

Buyer Testimonials

electronica India 2016

“We participated for the third time and found the event as a great platform which brings buyers and suppliers from the industry together. We learned about new technologies and upcoming trends in manufacturing and the services offered by various suppliers. At electronica India, we met new suppliers for PCB and electronics components and saw the latest manufacturing techniques and equipment.” Ashvin Navadia, Co-founder & CEO, Allnyx Technologies LLP

“This is our sixth year of participation in electronica India and productronica India with the aim of getting updates on market, technology and product alternatives. The trade fairs are an opportunity for us to have discussions with various suppliers and identify potential customers.” G. Venkatesan, GM-Supply Chain, AmaraRaja Electronics Ltd

“electronica India continues to be the best platform for the electronic manufacturing community. We believe in this value and took part for the last eight years. We were able to identify new sources for various commodities and could also develop a new supplier base for the products manufactured by Centum Electronics at the trade fair.” Mahesha M, Sr. Manager - Purchase, Centum Electronics Ltd

“electronica India is a great platform to showcase advanced technology gene-pool in India” Dinkar Agrawal, Managing Partner, Djuris

“We have been a part of electronica India for four or five years. The trade fair has been an excellent platform which helped us to connect globally. The event has been a huge success for our business.” Bhaskar Kumar, Head – Corporate Sourcing &SCM, Security Division, MINDA Corporation Ltd.

“I am really excited about Internet of Things (IoT) at the show. The market for electronics is in an excellent phase and we benefitted from participating in the fair.” Ramaraj. S, CEO, Preva

“We are really delighted to see a trade fair like electronica India and it is amazing to see it happening at a technology hub like Bengaluru. The event yet again proves to be very important for companies investing in this industry, making them much more competitive both locally and globally.” Sudhir Sathiyamoorthy, Founder & CEO, RESONATE

“We have been visiting electronica India since its inception with no exception. This year we met existing and prospective customers and vendors and updated ourselves on industry happenings.” Narayan Kumar, Managing Director - Technical of Sanjay Technologies
