Singapore Pavilion

The Association of Electronic Industries in Singapore (AEIS)

The Association of Electronic Industries in Singapore (AEIS) is the only industry association representing the electronics business in Singapore.

AEIS represents all facets of the electronics and supporting services industries. It covers manufacturers of industrial electronics, electronic components and consumer electronics products as well as industrial electronics companies associated with the electronics industry.

Since its inception on November 7, 1973, AEIS has played a vital role in promoting the industries not only within Singapore, but also within the international business community. This is achieved through its ongoing trade development efforts to help Singapore companies better penetrate and favorably positioned itself in the overseas markets.

AEIS VISION

The partner to business excellence for the electronics industries in Singapore.

AEIS MISSION

Nurturing partnership and collaboration moving towards business excellence and growth.

AEIS OBJECTIVES

- to promote the electronics industry within Singapore and promote the local electronics industry internationally;
- to represent the local electronics industry in both local and international bodies, institutions and associations;

- to exchange trade and technical information including information relating to manufacturing, programs and products skills both locally as well as with the electronics industries in other countries;
 - to study and develop technology within the electronics industry in Singapore;
 - to examine and promote domestic and export markets for the electronics industry in Singapore;
 - to promote healthy competition through co-operation with the other electronics in the region.

AEIS ACTIVITIES

- Trade and investment mission
 - Trade fairs
 - Talks and seminars
 - Information exchange
 - Business matching

UK Pavilion

SCS Exhibitions Ltd. in conjunction with the Department of International Trade (DIT) are organizing a UK Pavilion at the productronica India and electronica India.

Here you will find UK companies presenting the latest technologies and services manufactured and supplied from the United Kingdom. The UK has long been recognized as a country leading the way in development and quality manufacture and the companies that are presenting themselves at these events are at the forefront of technology advancements in the electronics production, components and laser/photonics sector.

UK companies that meet an SME criteria (less than 250 employees and less than EUR 50 million turnover) are able to apply for DIT funding towards their participation at these events.

Participation options on the UK Pavilion start from just GBP 400.

If you are a UK based company or if you are representing a UK company within the region and want to find out more about how you can be part of the UK group and benefit from the grant funding available, please do not hesitate to contact us.
